

XM Radio traffic/weather provides a service that is unavailable anywhere else - All day coverage of traffic. Disposing of this would mean that everyone would have to wait for the FM/AM stations to report on traffic conditions, which occurs much less frequently.